Selma's Riverfront Market Day takes place every second Saturday of October on historic Water Avenue, an antebellum riverfront district.

RIVERFRONT MARKET

SELMA, ALABAMA

Riverfront Market, in conjunction with Arts Revive, invites quality vendors, artisans and craftsmen to the city on the bluff where its blend of history comes alive with the sights, sounds and aromas of the Deep South.

Experience the tunes of Dixieland, blues, Southern rock and country while you browse open-air booths piled with colorful quilts and handbags, wooden bowls, baskets, picture frames, stools, spinners and children's toys. Shop beneath wrought-iron balconies for barnwood and cedar birdhouses, baskets woven with wisteria and kudzu, monogrammed gifts, handmade jewelry, pottery and more.

Selma, rich with architecture and Civil War and Civil Rights history, is just 45 minutes west of Montgomery.

Riverfront Market in Selma is truly the epitome of *Historic Places and Southern Graces

Admission: Adults: $2, Children: $1, Under 12: Free
